MAGALIE RENÉ is a Compassion & Confidence Expert, CEO of Workplace Catalyst, and a Transformational Coach. She activates compassion, authenticity, and impact in organizations, executives, and entrepreneurs.

Her business coaching applies a unique blend of growth-mindset, along with business and marketing strategy. Magalie supports leaders in finding the confidence to successfully transition careers, launch their businesses, and shift their habits to create epic results.

Through Workplace Catalyst™ her team of powerful facilitators offer interactive, thought-provoking workshops, and curriculums that bridge compassionate leadership, well-being and belonging.

She has worked with Fortune 500 companies, the renowned Ford Foundation, and clients including Publicis Groupe, Senator Mark Kelly, Kaiser Permanente, Live Nation, California Institute of Technology (Cal Tech), Eventbrite, and more. Magalie has been featured on Good Morning America, CBS News, Forbes.com, KTLA, Cosmopolitan Magazine, and The Ladders, among others.

As the founder of “Find Your Shine,” she hosts transformational events and courses for entrepreneurs and business leaders, inspiring them to conquer fear and share their message.

When she’s not speaking, writing, or coaching executive leadership, you can find the native Brooklynite on a walk, in her cities of residence (Los Angeles and Palm Springs) with her dog Prince.

QUOTES

"Compassionate Leadership is focused on humanity, and to be truly effective in today's age, leaders must operate with people in mind. This includes a genuine concern for people's growth, efficiency, and productivity."

"Compassionate Leadership is needed now more than ever to move an organization forward in a truly effective and productive way as leaders focus on who they are BEING as they go about doing the important work of leading."

"What differentiates a good leader or boss from greatness is compassion. As a Compassionate Leadership Expert, I am proud to teach companies and leaders how to operate with people in mind, including their growth, efficiency and productivity."

"In order to be a compassionate leader, one must be attentive, understanding, empathetic, committed to inclusivity, and moreover supportive. Compassionate Leadership is responsible for rapid company growth while providing a competitive marketplace advantage."
